

IFA GLOBAL CAFÉ

In Conversation with Dr. Naheed Dosani:

Living and Dying on the Streets: The Canadian Perspective on Palliative Care for People Experiencing Homelessness

Palliative Care Physician, Health Justice Advocate

 30 July 2021

 07:00 - 08:00AM EDT

Greetings,

Individuals experiencing homelessness often have high rates of morbidity, especially for older people. Both the homeless and healthcare providers experience a lot of barriers during the COVID-19. Therefore, providing palliative care that fits the unique needs and concerns of the homeless is a significant challenge to healthcare providers.

The IFA is honored to invite Dr Naheed Dosani, an experienced palliative care physician with extensive experience in the caring for homeless/vulnerable/marginalized people in community settings to create accessible health care.

Date and Time: Friday 30th July 2021
7:00-8:00 am (Eastern Time)

Opening Remarks: Dr Naheed Dosani
Palliative Care Physician, Health Justice Advocate
